SLAYER'S CAR IS FOUND IN SOUTH FRIDAY

The car in which Raymond Martinez, 27, New York City, fled Adams County early on the morning of November 3 following the murder of Martin Suarez, 20, a Puerto Rican orchard laborer, has been found in Fort Myers, Fla., Friday.

State police said Friday night that Fort Myers officers had found the car as it was being driven in the Florida city.

The driver was Pedro Olebo Ocaro, who said that he was the owner of the vehicle.

Police and the FBI which has been called into the search extended their hunt for Martinez in the Florida area.

Police here said, "We can only surmise that Martinez drove the car to Florida, where he apparently disposed of it."

KNIFE IN HAND

Previously police had been leaning toward the theory that Martinez would head for New York City where he resides.

Martinez is charged before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder with murder in the shooting of Suarez at a labor camp near Bendersville. Police arrived at the camp early on the morning of November 3 to find Suarez dead on the floor of one of the rooms of the structure with a knife in his hand. He had been shot by a revolver. Angel Rafael Lopez, 33, New York City, had been shot through the left foot. Martinez, who was accused by the others of doing the shooting, had fled. Lopez said the car in which Martinez fled was owned by him.

Martinez and Lopez were visitors to the labor camp where the dead man had been employed for about three weeks prior to his murder. Lopez was a frequent visitor to the camps selling various articles, police said.

DECISION DAY FOR COUNTY BD. COMES MONDAY

A special meeting of the Adams County Board of School Directors will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Notices of the meeting announce "the purpose of the meeting is to take final action on the revised county plan for school district reorganization and to transact such other business as may come before the meeting at that time."

The session will be held at the county school superintendent's office on Carlisle St.

The meeting will climax months of discussions and studies on the question of reorganizing the county's school districts under Act 561 passed by the last state legislature.

TWO CHOICES—OR THREE

Under its provisions, school districts must a minimum of 4,000 pupils and a total population of not less than 22,000 to qualify for state approval by the state Council of Education. The act provides that under special circumstances the state council might approve districts with as few as 2,500 pupils.

Adams County with its 9,105 school children in 1960-61, the year designated by the act as the determining one as far as school enrollment is concerned, has generally been considered to have a choice of having either one or two school districts in the entire county.

At a meeting of school administrators and school district presidents 10 days ago, a proposal was

TRACE JOYCE TO BRADDOCK

Borough police have traced "Joyce Stewart" to Braddock, Pa., only to find that she is being sought by Braddock police on the same charges as those filed against her here — passing bad checks.

Police here last week started the search for the young woman, described as an attractive brunnette weighing 105 pounds, young, with dark hair and eyes and slender features, after receiving reports from a number of merchants that she had passed checks that bounced, most of them were signed "James Mitchell," by whom, she told the stores which accepted the checks, she was employed.

Conrad Wirth Will Dedicate Center Monday

Conrad L. Wirth, director, National Park Service, will deliver the address Monday afternoon at ceremonies dedicating the new Visitor Center in the Gettysburg Battlefield. Sponsored by the Lincoln Fellowship of Pennsylvania and the National Park Service, the program will begin at 3:15 o'clock. It is open to the public. There is no admission.

The Visitor Center, which was completed last summer, houses the huge painting of "Pickett's Charge," by Paul Philippoteaux. The dedication program concludes a series of weekend events associated with Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

OTHERS ON PROGRAM

Rev. Dr. Paul Reaser, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church, will deliver the invocation; James B. Myers, superintendent of the Battlefield will welcome the guests; Rev. Robert A. Macaskill, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will pronounce the benediction; Chester Shriver, president of the Lincoln Fellowship of Pennsylvania, will speak and the Gettysburg High School Band, under the direction of Kenneth Hays, will furnish the music.

Ronald F. Lee, regional director, Northeast region, of the National Park Service, will be master of ceremonies and will introduce the guest speakers, including Lt. Gov. FISSELS WILL GET TOP DHIA HONORS TODAY

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fissel, Biglerville R. 2, will be announced this afternoon as the first farmers in Adams County ever to have a herd of cows producing an average per cow of more than 600 pounds of butterfat during one year.

Mr. and Mrs. Fissel will be presented with a ribbon from the Pennsylvania Dairywomen's Association for the achievement at the annual banquet starting at noon today in New Oxford fire hall by the Adams County Dairy Herd Improvement Association.

The records show that the "29.4" cows in their herd at the Lu Pa Green Acres farm, Biglerville R. 2, averaged 637 pounds of butterfat and 17,848 pounds of milk during the testing year. The number is "29.4" rather than 30 because one cow was not in the herd the entire year.

County Agent Frank Zettle praised not only Mr. and Mrs. Fissel for their achievement, but noted that 14 of the herd produced an average of more than 500 pounds of butterfat per cow and 38 herds were found to have an average of more than 300 pounds of butterfat production per cow.

The Fissel herd was far and away the best in the county. There is a difference of more than 4,000 pounds of milk and 100 pounds of butterfat per cow between the Fissel herd and the fifth place herd in county DHIA. Trophies were given to the five top herds, those of Mr. and Mrs. Fissel; Andrew Martin, Gettysburg R. 5; J. Henry Kneller, Gettysburg R. 5; Oscar Winters, Hanover R. 5; and Glenn Sterner and son, Gettysburg R. 1.

The Martin herd of 28 cows produced an average per cow of 15,425 pounds of milk and 595 pounds of butterfat; the Kneller herd of 40.9 cows produced an average per cow of 11,289 of milk and 565 pounds of butterfat. The average per cow of the 19.3 in the

COUNTY HOME GUESTS MAKE WIDE VARIETY OF FINE ITEMS

An attractive display of dozens of items made by residents of the Adams County Home are being shown in the windows of The Gettysburg Times and will remain on exhibition until the day before Thanksgiving.

The items were made under the home's occupational therapy program and represents hours of time and patience on the part of guests, whose ages range from 55 to 90. Although handicapped in many ways, the 45 men and women participating in the program have been able to produce intricate designs in beads and plastic decorations, hot pads, burlap and yarn, shell items and many others.

The program was started in March under the supervision of Mrs. George L. Engleke, Twin Oaks artist and former arts and crafts supervisor in New Jersey schools. She said that about two-thirds of the guests who are able to use their hands for crafts work have produced the items on display. Materials are donated or are provided by the home auxiliary when new materials are needed. Mrs. Engleke is hopeful that eventually the guests may be able to produce the items in sufficient quantities that they may be able to offer them for sale.

USE ODD PIECES

Materials used in some of the items on display include odd beads, buttons, spools, ceramic tiles, aluminum and paper plates, plastic bottles, plastic tomato and berry boxes, ribbon, yarns, yard-lengths of materials, burlap, cigar boxes and other types of cans and boxes.

Under the present program guests have done watercolors, dry-brush and scratchboard paintings. They have made posters in crayon and chalk and from

Fear Shooting Fray Over U.S. Cuban Flights May Mar U.N. Talks To Settle Crisis

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—A threat by Prime Minister Fidel Castro to shoot down U.S. reconnaissance planes heightened the fears of many delegates today that a shooting incident might torpedo talks to settle the Cuban crisis.

In Washington, U.S. officials were inclined to think that the Russians would not support Castro in any military action risking U.S. retaliation. There was a conviction that anti-aircraft missile batteries in Cuba are manned by Russians not subject to Castro's orders.

Nevertheless, Castro got Soviet verbal support Friday as U.S. Delegate Arthur Dean and Soviet Delegate Valerian A. Zorin clashed on the issue before the U.N. Political Committee. Zorin called the Cuban leader's warning against U.S. flights "perfectly legitimate."

Dean declared the United States would continue scout missions over Cuba as long as necessary and give its planes protection if need be.

DEAN RAPS REDS

Dean rapped the Russians for installing missile bases in Cuba while assuring President Kennedy that no offensive weapons were being sent to Castro.

Dean said Khrushchev had been found "with his hand in the Cuban missile pot, or if you will, plot."

Stung by Dean's remarks, Zorin said any attempt by the United States to violate Cuban sovereignty, "cannot but provoke universal condemnation."

JAILED FOR LARCENY HERE

Dempsey Wingo, of Ocala, Fla., is in the Ocala jail charged with larceny in Adams County.

State police said Wingo was picked up by Florida police and placed in jail for transfer back to Adams County on a warrant sworn before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder here by Wingo's partner in the labor camp business, Mercedes Hamilton, also of Florida and Adams County.

Wingo currently is fighting extradition on the charge, police said they have learned. According to the officers, Wingo and Miss Mercedes, who are licensed labor crew chiefs, brought a group of laborers to the Gardner R.D. area of the county, this summer and operated in connection with the labor camp a "sort of store" providing the laborers with articles that they might need.

Wingo, according to police, is charged with absconding with $500 of the store profits plus numerous other articles from the store operated jointly with Miss Hamilton. Both are negroes.

RIDINGER WINS BY 112 VOTES IN FINAL TALLY

Harry D. Ridinger, local realtor, is Adams County's assemblyman by 112 votes.

The count of the absentee ballots Friday afternoon increased Ridinger's total vote to 9,498 while the vote of his opponent, Attorney Eugene R. Hartman, increased to 9,386. Ridinger received 173 to the 250 military and absentee ballots counted Friday afternoon and evening while Hartman received 71 of the votes.

Final official count for Adams County—including the ballots cast at the election here and the military and absentee ballots counted Friday—was as follows:

11,569 FOR SCRANTON
For U. S. senator: Joseph S. Clark, Democratic, 8,120; James E. Van Zandt, Republican, 10,755; Arla A. Albaugh, Socialist Labor, 20.

For governor: Richard Dilworth, Democratic, 7,307; William W. Scranton, Republican, 11,569; George S. Taylor, Socialist Labor, 25.

For lieutenant governor: Stephen McCann, Democratic, 7,796; Raymond P. Shafer, Republican, 10,974; Benson Perry, Socialist Labor, 33.

For secretary of internal affairs: Genevieve Blatt, Democratic, 8,078; Audrey R. Kelly, Republican, 10,696; Herman A. Johansen, Socialist Labor, 66.

FINISHED FRIDAY NIGHT

For judge of the Supreme Court: Earl S. Keim, Democratic, 7,943; Samuel J. Roberts, Republican, 10,854.

For congressman: Earl D. Warner, Democratic, 7,887; George A. Goodling, Republican, 10,988.

For assemblyman: Eugene R. Hartman, Democratic, 9,386; Harry D. Ridinger, Republican, 9,498; Francis Worley, 9; Arthur Gordon, 1; Herbert Bryan, 1.

The final tabulation was completed at 8:45 o'clock Friday night by the commissioners and tellers, Luther Lady and Edward Stine, who began their work in connection with the count of the ballots at 10 o'clock Friday morning.

23 BALLOTS REJECTED

A total of 307 ballots had been mailed to voters absent from the county either on military duty or as civilians. Of that number 96 military ballots and 173 civilian absentee voters were returned, for a total of 269.

Nineteen of the returned civilian ballots and four of the military ballots were rejected for various reasons including returning the ballots without returning the proper form with it, for failure to have the form witnessed, for failure to put the actual ballot in the required envelope and sealing it, and for failing to properly fill out the forms accompanying the ballot.

One person enclosed a note with the ballot stating that the voter had lost a pocketbook and thus lost the voting registration card. The commissioners decided to send a duplicate registration card to the voter, but also noted that by putting the note in the ballot the voter had voided it.

MOSTLY REPUBLICANS

The absentee ballots came from Holland, Naples and Marseilles. One voter is traveling. The ballot had been sent to him in Australia, it was returned from Hong Kong.

Most of the interest was in the Ridinger-Hartman race with Ridinger only 10 votes ahead of Hartman Friday morning. As the count began Ridinger's lead began

MISS BLATT IS HOLDING LEAD

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Democrat incumbent Genevieve Blatt maintained a lead over Republican Audrey Kelly today as the official county-by-county vote was compiled in the race for state secretary of internal affairs.

Miss Blatt, seeking a third term, held her lead despite the fact absentee ballots were favoring Mrs. Kelly by nearly three-to-two.

The latest official tally from 48 counties had Miss Blatt 2,147,329 to 2,144,845 for Mrs. Kelly.

Absentee voting, however, gave Miss Blatt 8,484 and Mrs. Kelly 13,420.

Although Mrs. Kelly was ahead in the absentee voting, the final official returns from the 48 counties gave Miss Blatt higher totals in many instances than previously recorded.

The difference, at least for the present, nullified Mrs. Kelly's gains.

William Polaski, director of the Elections Bureau at Harrisburg, said Friday night county boards were returning an average 83 per cent of absentee ballots sent out. A total 52,241 were issued to the state's 67 counties.

2-MAN SPACE FLIGHT OFF UNTIL 1964

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The first two-man U.S. space flight has been delayed at least three months and most likely will not be made before 1964.

"We might even have further slips," a U.S. space agency official said Friday at the American Rocket Society convention.

Robert R. Gilruth, director of the agency's Manned Space Craft Center at Houston, Tex., said the delay was not due to a shortage of funds for the two-man Gemini astronaut program. It just takes time "to do this very complicated job," he said.

BILLION FOR TITAN

In other convention developments, Air Force Secretary Eugene M. Zuckert announced the start of a billion-dollar program under which the Titan III super rocket will be developed, and Dr. Hugh L. Dryden, deputy administrator of the space agency, said construction of huge orbiting space stations may be the nation's next large manned space project.

Gilruth declined to specify what technical problems have delayed the Gemini program. But he said the first launching of an unmanned Gemini capsule "has slipped from the third quarter to the fourth quarter of 1963."

"There is virtually no possibility of a manned flight before 1964," he said.

AWARD FOR GILRUTH

Gilruth came here to receive the Robert H. Goddard Memorial Award. The award, highest honor bestowed by the rocket society, is named for the father of American rocketry and is given each year for eminence in the field of rocket engineering and space flight.

Zuckert said contracts for the Titan III program have either been signed or are being negotiated. Actual work will start Dec. 1, he said.

STATIONS FIRST

The Titan III's first job will be to boost the X-20 Dyna-Soar aerospace vehicle into orbit for the Air Force. Titan III will have a thrust of 2.5 million pounds and will stand 151 feet high when topped by the Dyna-Soar vehicle. Dr. Dryden told the convention he believes construction of space stations will take precedence over extensive exploitation of the moon.

"THANKS DEAR GOD"

Dear God, I am most grateful . . . for all You've given me . . . hands and feet to move about . . . eyes with which I see . . . I'm thankful for the faith and strength . . . needed to go along . . . and for the mental power . . . to know what's right or wrong . . . You have been very kind to me . . . each segment of the way . . . blessing me with peaceful rest . . . after the close of day . . . and when misfortune was my lot . . . You helped to pull me through . . . so my prayers of gratitude . . . always go out to You . . . but should you deem I suffer . . . I never will protest . . . for when You make things happen . . . it's always for the best.

DECISION DAY

advanced that the county board proposed a three-district plan even though there would be no assurance of state approval. A one-district county plan or a plan to divide the county into two districts are regarded as likely to qualify for state approval.

DIRECTORS DIVIDED

School directors and school districts are divided in their recommendations to the county board. Littlestown, Fairfield and Conewago Twp. have urged a one-district plan while Gettysburg, Upper Adams, New Oxford, Berwyn Springs and Franklin Twp. are on record as favoring a two-district plan.

One consideration that most of the districts favoring the two-district plan noted was the danger of losing state financial aid on transportation costs if the single-district plan is used. In one district the county would become a second-class school district for which no transportation reimbursement would be provided under present school law.

Backers of the single district plan point to administrative economies, some saving in transportation costs, elimination of dividing lines between districts and a uniform school tax rate throughout the county.

KENNEDY HOLIDAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy and his family plan to spend the Thanksgiving weekend at their vacation home in Hyannis Port, Mass.

The President, Mrs. Kennedy and their children will fly to Cape Cod Wednesday afternoon, where the Kennedy clan gathers traditionally for a Thanksgiving reunion. The chief executive's father, Joseph P. Kennedy, is there now, convalescing from a stroke suffered last December.

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo

(AP)—Edmund Gullion, U.S. ambassador to Leopoldville, has been summoned urgently to Washington for State Department talks, an embassy source said today.

Also taking part in the parley will be George McGhee, undersecretary of state for political affairs who visited the Congo last month and discussed the Congolese problem with European statesmen this week.

Stolen Paintings Found Near Paris

PARIS (AP)—All but one of 56 valuable paintings stolen 16 months ago from an unguarded museum in a Riviera resort have been recovered.

Police, acting on an anonymous tip to Cultural Minister Andre Malraux, found the paintings Friday in a dilapidated, abandoned barn in Villers-Saint-Georges, near Paris.

Thieves, who experts said had a discriminating taste, stole the paintings July 17, 1961, from the Annexe Museum, a converted chapel in the resort village of Ste. Tropez.

BISHOP AND 3 PRIESTS MUST LEAVE HAITI

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—The Negro Republic of Haiti, in a renewal of a feud with the Church, accused a Roman Catholic bishop Friday of crusading against voodoo and ordered him and three priests deported.

The Haitian government also charged that the 60-year-old French-born bishop, the Most Rev. Paul Robert, had conducted a defamation campaign against strongman President Francois Duvalier in 1957, when Duvalier won re-election to a second term. The bishop was called "an enemy of the government."

The voodoo charges dated back to 1941.

FLY TO STATE

Bishop Robert and the priests were to fly to New York today via Miami, Fla. The bishop was to go on to Rome to report to the Vatican.

The priests, also French-born, were identified only as Robin, George Martin and Salius. The expulsions brought to 12 the number of Catholic clergymen ordered out of Haiti in the last two years by Duvalier.

The president of the French-speaking nation was excommunicated in January 1961 for his role in expelling other high-ranking clergy on charges of allegedly conspiring with Communists. Vatican sources at that time said the clergy resisted the government's attempt to impose the voodoo tradition on Catholicism.

Duvalier regards primitive religions with more than average interest.

The Haitian government, unsuccessful in efforts to have the Vatican recall Bishop Robert from his diocese at Gonaives, removed him to a home for aged priests in the capital city of Port-au-Prince in February 1961.

The bishop, in Haiti for 39 years, and other clerics got a few Haitians in 1941 to take antisuperstition oaths and destroy their voodoo temples and charms. The government cracked down on the church effort.

Voodooism, introduced into the Caribbean and the southern United States by African slaves, relies largely on sorcery and the use of charms. Rites at one time involved the sacrifice of humans. The primitive religion retains its strongest hold in Haiti.

Canners Stun Shippensburg 19-0 To Kill Hounds' Hopes For League Title Deadlock

A steady downpour throughout the entire evening kept the Greyhounds of Shippensburg High School bogged down as the Bigville Cannery sealed the lid on a stunning 19-0 victory, Friday night on the Cannery's field before 500 fans, most of whom were from Shippensburg.

The Blue Mountain League encounter was the last battle of the long season for both teams. For Bigville it was a happy ending to a 5-4-1 overall record and a 4-4-1 slate in the conference. Shippensburg, the number two team in the BML, didn't slip down but lost all hope for a tie for the title. The Greyhounds finished the year with an overall 8-2 mark and the setback was also their second defeat in the league, East Pennsboro and Newport square off this afternoon and no matter what the outcome, East Pennsboro is the conference champs.

After the first four plays of Friday's ball game, it was hard to identify the mud-covered ball players but regardless of the conditions, it was one of the finest performances of the season for Jack Emanuel's squad. Bigville controlled the ball throughout most of the clash. Shippensburg had the ball but 20 times in the first half and was sliced to 11 in the second half with only two plays run off in the third stanza.

DOMINATE THROUGHOUT
The Cannery pounded out 213 yards rushing for 11 first downs and an additional 33 in the air for two more first downs. Shippensburg was held to 93 yards total offense and three first downs, two in the first half.

Bigville gave the handful of home fans a brighter outlook than the weather when it marched 76 yards for a score the first time it had possession. The Cannery took over on their own 24 following a Tom Lightfoot punt. Twelve plays later Bigville scored with quarterback Gary Wright going over from the one with 4:10 remaining in the first stanza. The big play of the drive was an unexpected Wright pass to end Phil Pitzer for 27 yards to the Greyhounds' two. Halfback Leroy Wetzel ran the extra point and the score stood 7-0 through the first half.

HORICK INTERCEPTS
Shippensburg's deepest penetration came in the late moments of the first half. The Greyhounds drove from their own 45 to the Cannery's 22 before Jeff Horick intercepted a Dick Kling pass.

Bigville took the second-half kickoff and drove to the visitors' eight before giving up possession on downs. Three plays later Lightfoot booted and the Cannery once again took over, this time on the Shippensburg 30. Eleven short plays up the middle followed as fullback Bill Slaybaugh smashed over from the one with 2:30 remaining in the period. Slaybaugh's run for the extra point was stopped.

Fumbles began to take their toll for the Greyhounds. Irv Hill bobbled the kickoff and the Cannery took over on their own 45. Midway through the final period, scoring leader Forrest Weist fumbled on his own 20 and Horick recovered for the Cannery. Bill Slaybaugh toted the ball three out of five times to set the stage for Wright's three-yard bootleg around left end for the score. Slaybaugh was again stopped trying to run the extra point.

The second half was almost a repeat of the first for Shippensburg. The Greyhounds got as far as Bigville's 47 as the game ended.

Without a doubt Bigville went into the game as the underdog but came out of it the holders of one of the big upsets of the season. Each man did his job and did it extremely well. Among those who gave such an outstanding performance were 10 seniors playing their final game. They included: Gary Wright, Leroy Wetzel, George Montgomery, Bill Slaybaugh, Wayne Ogburn, Jim Mickey, Phil Pitzer, John Hall, Mike Thomas and Joe Hartman.

PACKERS WILL FACE BIG TEST AGAINST COLTS

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Green Bay Packers, probably in danger of losing a game one of these seasons, may have Paul Hornung back to full-time duty Sunday to lend assistance to an attack that hasn't missed him a bit.

While the versatile halfback-kicker was hampered, the Packers' Vince Lombardi was able to call on three or four capable replacements who ran and occasionally passed like new Hornungs, if not like Hornung himself.

Now Paul, the National Football League's most valuable player last season, comes back after a month of leg trouble in a kind of rich-get-richer situation to beef up a Packers squad that has only won all nine of its games, ranks first in total offense and total defense, has scored more points than anyone else in the league and—overcome these shortcomings—owns the hardest-to-score-against defensive unit.

WILL FACE LIONS

For once, the Packers may need Hornung since the defending NFL champs face in Green Bay the Baltimore Colts, who held them to a 17-6 margin the last time the two met. The game, feature of another seven-games Sunday in the NFL, opens probably the toughest stretch the mighty Packers will face until the championship game itself at the end of the season. Once finished with the Colts, the Packers will head for Detroit and their annual Thanksgiving meeting on Thursday with the Lions.

If they're still unconquered after that, they'll be next to odds-on for the first unbeaten record by an NFL team since the Chicago Bears of 1942, and the first by a Green Bay club since 1929.

EAGLES FLOP

The Colts, although they have only a 5-4 record, should give the Western Division leaders more of a test than the Eastern leaders, the New York Giants, face from their opponent at Yankee Stadium—the Philadelphia Eagles.

Philadelphia, the flop of the NFL season, has won only one. Lost seven and tied one and moves against the pass-happy Giants still reeling from last week's 49-0 loss to Green Bay.

In other games, the Western runner-up Lions (7-2) are at Minnesota (2-7); the Chicago Bears (5-4) are at Dallas (4-4-1); San Francisco (3-6) at Los Angeles (1-9); Eastern runner-up Washington (5-2-2) at Pittsburgh (5-4); and St. Louis (2-6-1) at Cleveland (4-4-1).

CLAY MAY MEET PATTERSON IN PRELIM BOUT

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP) — Cassius Clay, the hottest prospect and fastest talker in the heavyweight division, appeared today to be in for a disappointment if he hopes to rush into a title fight with champion Sonny Liston.

Floyd Patterson, Billy Daniels, Zora Folley, Doug Jones, Eddie Machen, and even Ingemar Johansson were names being bandied about as possible opponents. But not Liston.

Clay proved himself a valuable piece of property Thursday night when he stopped ancient Archie Moore in the fourth round of their scheduled 12-rounder at Los Angeles.

If Liston will go for it, Clay could wind up in the ring against Patterson in Madison Square Garden in January. Liston would have to okay the bout because he and Patterson have a return bout contract. Sonny demolished Patterson in the first round of their championship bout in Chicago last Sept. 25.

HUGES ON CONTRACT

Harry Markson, general manager of the Madison Square Garden Boxing Club, would like to put on a Clay-Patterson bout, with the winner to meet Liston for the crown in the Yankee Stadium in June.

"I know Patterson has a return bout contract with Liston," said Markson. "But I'm sure Floyd realizes that because of his first round knockout, there will be little interest in their return unless he does something to restore public confidence in his fighting ability."

He added that he was certain Liston would prefer to defend against the Clay-Patterson winner, rather than take on Patterson again untested. He also pointed out that the whole thing could be taken care of with a new contract.

Neither Patterson nor Liston has had time to digest the idea. Liston still is unlicensed to fight in New York because of his police record.

FEW TEETH IN CASTRO THREAT AGAINST U.S.

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials indicated today they feel there are few teeth in Fidel Castro's threat to shoot down American reconnaissance planes flying over Cuba.

The main reason: a conviction here that Russians can all anti-aircraft missile batteries in Cuba and that they are not subject to Castro's orders. Another is that swift jet fighters are within call should any U.S. reconnaissance plane run into trouble from Cuban MIGs.

The United States suspended high altitude U2 reconnaissance flights over Cuba for about 10 days after Maj. Rudolf Anderson Jr. was shot down Oct. 27 at the height of the crisis.

USING BOTH KINDS

In the interim, the burden of aerial surveillance was borne by fast reconnaissance planes that swept in at low levels and took their pictures before there could be any counter action.

Informants said U.S. planes are back to flying both low level and high altitude reconnaissance missions.

Castro warned Thursday in a letter to Acting U.N. Secretary-General U Thant that any U.S. plane flying over Cuba would do so "at the risk of being destroyed."

NO FIRING YET

The United States retorted that the flights would continue with all protection necessary.

Defense officials said that as of Thursday night no U.S. pilot had reported being fired upon since Anderson was downed.

No information was available to indicate there had been any incidents Friday.

The main threat to high level reconnaissance planes would come from about 22 batteries of the latest model Soviet anti-aircraft missiles arrayed in Cuba.

U.S. authorities say they have every reason to believe Russian rocketeers are manning the batteries.

IN ROCKET RANGE

Anderson's U2 is believed to have been downed by one of these Soviet "guideline" missiles.

There is a threat from an estimated 100 Soviet-built MIG jet fighters in Cuba — particularly from about 37 of the latest model MIG 21s, which have an operating ceiling capable of putting them within rocket range of high altitude U.S. planes.

The MIG 21s, armed with air-to-air rockets, are believed flown largely by Cuban pilots under Castro's command.

Semipro Clash This Evening At Littlestown

The Cumberland Colts of Carlisle and the Bel Air Big Reds of Bel Air, Md., semipro football teams, will clash on Littlestown Memorial Field tonight at 8 p.m. The game is being sponsored by the Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Littlestown Aerie No. 2226, Fraternal Order of Eagles, for the benefit of the high school athletic fund.

The game should be of special interest to local fans as "Butch Little," former star of the Littlestown High School Thunderbolts, is a member of the Colts team as is Joe Cicielski, who formerly played with the Bigville Cannery.

TODAY'S TILTS WILL DECIDE BOWL ELEVEN

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

Sometime after nightfall tonight either coach Dan Devine of Missouri or Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson can start practicing his acceptance speech for a trip to the Orange Bowl.

Their teams clash today with the winner almost certain to get the trip to Florida, although each has further Big Eight activity on the schedule.

The game between unbeaten but once-tied Missouri and the on-rushing Sooners, 5-2 and winner of four straight, tops a national college football schedule that should go a long way toward clearing up the bowl picture. Acceptances cannot be made until Dec. 1.

SOONERS ARE RISING

Missouri, ranked sixth in the nation and tied only by Minnesota, has a 5-0 conference record with a game against Kansas remaining.

The Sooners, who lost two of their first three, have rolled over their last four opponents by a combined score of 163-7. The Sooners have games remaining with Nebraska and Oklahoma but the winner of the Oklahoma-Missouri match will have the inside track to the Orange Bowl.

Things are a little less certain for the other major bowls, the Rose, Cotton and Sugar, although Southern California is all but a sure thing for the host spot in the Rose.

The unbeaten Trojans, ranked second in the nation on a 7-0 record, have secured at least a tie for the Big Six title, which also includes the Rose Bowl berth. The Trojans go against Navy today and close conference play against UCLA next week.

BIG TEN FUSS

The visiting spot for the Rose festival was still very much up in the air going into today's games, with Wisconsin, Northwestern and Purdue in the running.

Purdue (3-1) faces Minnesota, tied for the Big Ten lead and ranked eighth in the country but ineligible for the post-season classic because of two consecutive appearances in the Rose Bowl.

Northwestern, ranked ninth in the country, tests Michigan State while fourth-ranked Wisconsin (6-1) plays Illinois. Wisconsin seems to have the inside track for the bowl berth since it plays seven conference games, Northwestern and Purdue only six.

Alabama, defending national champion and again No. 1 with an 8-0 record, visits Georgia Tech, possibly one of the toughest foes on the "Bama" schedule. Alabama, virtually assured of either an Orange or Sugar Bowl spot, has a stern defense to present against twice-beaten Tech.

OTHER GAMES

Mississippi, unbeaten in seven, ranked third and also gunning for a spot in one of the major bowls, faces a so-so Tennessee team.

Texas, No. 5 and 7-4 for the year, is leading the Southwest Conference race and the struggle for the host spot in the Cotton Bowl. The Longhorns have Texas A&M to face after today's match with troublesome Texas Christian.

Arkansas, seventh ranked and beaten only by Texas in eight games, is the most likely to succeed candidate for another bowl spot should the Longhorns continue their drive.

Louisiana State, No. 10, has a night game scheduled with Mississippi State.

REDS BEAT OLYMPICS

MONTREAL (AP)—The Russian National Hockey team scored the deciding goal with less than three minutes to play Friday night for a 2-1 victory over the Montreal Olympics, Stanislav Patuhov put in the winner on a long shot at 17 minutes, 18 seconds of the final period.

It was the Soviet team's second victory in as many starts in its nine-game tour of Canada.

ADELAIDE (AP)—Roy Emerson won his fourth South Australian men's tennis title today when he defeated 18-year-old John Newcombe 6-4, 6-4, 6-2.

MILWAUKEE'S BRAVES SOLD TO NEW GROUP

By DAVE O'HARA

Associated Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—A syndicate of six young Midwest business executives and Milwaukee Braves president John McHale assumed the job of rebuilding the club's sagging fortunes today after purchasing control of the National League entry from longtime owner Lou Perini.

Perini, a 59-year-old construction magnate with headquarters near the Braves' old home in Boston, announced sale of 90 per cent of the club's assets for $5.5 million Friday.

Perini, who started the baseball world by moving the Braves to Milwaukee shortly before the start of the 1953 season, surprised most observers with his announcement at a hastily called news conference.

KEEPS TOP POST

Rather than break away from the game entirely, however, Perini said that his corporation would retain a 10 per cent interest in the club. He will remain as chairman of the executive committee and as a member of the board of directors.

The syndicate of new owners is headed by two former directors of the Chicago White Sox, William C. Bartholomay, 34, of Lake Forest, Ill., and Lake Geneva, Wis., and Thomas A. Reynolds Jr., 34, of Northfield, Ill. Bartholomay is a Chicago insurance broker and Reynolds is a partner in a Chicago business firm.

McHale, 41, Perini's choice to become general manager in 1959 and then to assume the additional responsibility of president last year, will remain in both positions as well as being a co-owner.

OTHER PARTNERS

Other members of the new group are John J. Louis Jr., 37, of Phoenix, Ariz., and Cable, Wis.; Daniel C. Searle, 36, a Winnetka, Ill., business executive; James B. McCahey Jr., 41, a fuel company executive from Evanston, Ill., and Delbert W. Coleman, 36, of Winnetka, a prominent investment executive.

The new owners assume control at a time when the Braves' fortunes are at their lowest ebb since their final season in Boston in 1952. They drew more than one million fans in their first nine years in Milwaukee, reaching a high of 2,215,504 for 73 home dates in 1957.

The club dropped to fifth place this past season and attendance dipped to 767,221 despite an expanded schedule in a 10-team league. It now is in the process of negotiating a new contract for the county-owned stadium, which is not involved in the sale of the team's assets.

STAR TOLD HOW TO TESTIFY

NEW YORK (AP)—Even before his name was linked to the basketball scandals, former Bowling Green University star Bill Reed was coached by Jack Molinas on what to tell the Grand Jury in case he should be called to appear, Reed testified.

The 25-year-old Reed testified Friday that Molinas showed up at Bowling Green, Ohio in the spring of last year and told him "it was not a difficult thing to appear before a grand jury."

At the time, Reed's name had not been linked with the scandals.

Molinas, a former college and professional player who now is an attorney, is on trial charged with three counts of bribery, 25 counts of conspiracy and suborning of perjury in the scandal.

"He told me," Reed testified, "that I could always use the phrase, 'I don't remember.' Molinas told me he knew a number of players who had talked their way out and were back in school without having been mentioned in the papers."

YOUNG COACH GETS NEW PACT

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Marv Levy, a personable young Phi Beta Kappa who won just four games in 28 attempts, will coach football at California for another two years.

University regents, looking more at Cal's promising youngsters than this season's 1-7 record, gave Levy a raise in pay to an estimated $15-20,000 and a two-year contract Friday just as dismissal rumors were growing.

Levy, a 37-year-old graduate of Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Harvard University, came here after only two years of head coaching experience at New Mexico. There he was 14-6.

Many alumni grumbled at hiring a relative unknown, but he salvaged a 2-7-1 first season by beating arch-rival Stanford. Cal was only 1-8-1 in 1961, yet knocked Washington out of the Rose Bowl and tied powerful Missouri.

But this year, the Bears so far beat only hapless San Jose State.

Farmers May Get Feeding Programs By Using Penn State Forage Test Service

By FRANK S. ZETTL

Adams County Farm Agent Some farmers are still wondering how much purchased hay and grain they will need this barn-feeding season. This is of special concern to farmers in disaster-declared counties, who may be eligible to receive CCC corn through their county ASC office.

Frank S. Zetfle

At an extremely modest cost farmers may obtain feeding programs by using the Penn State Forage Testing Service. When adequate inventory and cost data are supplied on the request forms, the amounts of purchased forage required, if any, will be determined. The most economical forage or forage extender will be used to bolster forage supplies on farms with a deficit.

An adjusted forage feeding program can be outlined and an economical grain mixture developed. In addition, the usual feeding suggestions are given. These include protein levels in the grain mix, grain feeding rates, dry and fresh cow feeding schedules, as well as information on feeding young stock.

The Penn State Forage Testing Service truly can help farmers maximize returns under the adverse conditions facing them during this feeding season. It can particularly help farmers make good use of CCC corn and forage extenders. Detailed information and forage testing supplies may be obtained from your county agricultural agent's office.

CURING PORK AT HOME

A successful pork curing venture depends on several factors. Some of the basic points to remember are:

Rapid chilling of the hog carcass is important. If you don't have refrigeration facilities to cool a freshly slaughtered pork carcass, do not butcher in warm weather. Let the carcass hang overnight so that all the body heat is gone. A chilled carcass is much easier to cure than one that is warm and soft.

Where refrigerated curing rooms are not available, the dry sugar cure is safest. One successful and simple curing formula that can be mixed at home consists of eight pounds of salt, three pounds of white or brown sugar, and three ounces of saltpeter. This amount is sufficient to cure approximately 180 pounds of pork. If only a small amount of pork is to be cured, half or even one-fourth of the above amount of curing mixture can be used — being careful to mix them in the same proportions as given above.

MAY CAUSE SPOILAGE

Rub in one ounce of the 8-3-3 mixture to each pound of pork to be cured. Using less of the curing mixture than is recommended may result in spoilage, and playing safe by using more will result in dry, over-salty meat. Bacon will absorb all the curing mixture with only one rubbing. Shoulders usually require two rubbings and hams three rubbings at three to five day intervals between rubbings.

With thick hams and shoulders, use a knife or some other instrument to force some of the curing mixture down to the deep-seated joints. This is where spoilage usually starts. It requires about seven days for the cure to penetrate one inch of meat. By measuring the piece at the thickest spot, you will know how much time is required for it to cure. The ideal curing temperature is 35 to 40 degrees Fahrenheit. Trouble can be avoided if the temperature in the curing room or cellar does not get higher than 50 degrees Fahrenheit, especially during the early part of the curing period.

FALL OUT PROTECTION

Public concern over fallout is a normal reaction. Fear is one of the most common of human emotions. A fundamental cause of fear is the unknown. People are inclined to be afraid of things which they do not know or do not understand. That's the situation with radioactive fallout. We cannot see it and most people know next to nothing about it. Penn State has a correspondence course which replaces ignorance with understanding concerning the many complexities of fallout. Kinds of

FARM CALENDAR

Supplement Pasture — Early fall can be a critical time for beef cattle and sheep, says Thomas B. King, Penn State extension livestock specialist, because often their total nutrition is lacking more at this period. Farmers should make sure feed is always available, and King suggests supplementing depleted pastures with additional hay or silage.

Don't Store Eggs In Heated Rooms — It may be all right during the summer, but egg producers should find a better place than a heated basement to store eggs during the winter, says Carl O. Dossin, Penn State extension poultry specialist.

Depend On Reputable Nurseries — Many of Pennsylvania's commercial nurseries have highly trained people on their staffs. There are also many nurserymen who are very capable because they have had much experience in the field. A. O. Rasmussen, Penn State ornamental horticulture specialist, says your best bet is usually a nursery that is convenient, well established and enjoys a good reputation.

Farm Income Tax Course Offered — A two-day short course on farm income tax and social security will be presented by The Pennsylvania State University, Dec. 10-11. For application blanks and further information, write: Director of Short Courses, 211 Armsby Building, College of Agriculture, The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pennsylvania.

nuclear explosions are discussed. Biological damage to humans, pets, livestock and plants are explained and instructions are given on protective methods. A lesson on shielding and one on decontamination of food, water, buildings, animals and feed is included. Devices for measurement of radiation, alert and warning systems are discussed. Terms and concepts peculiar to fallout are defined and discussed in understandable language.

To get the fallout protection course write to: Fallout . . . Box 5000 . . . University Park, Pa. Include your name, address and $2.75. Make checks payable to The Pennsylvania State University. Entire course will be sent by return mail. Question papers can be returned to Penn State for correcting and grading.

Pumpkin, Called Versatile Vegetable, Is High In Food Value Says Home Economist

MRS. HELEN D. TUNISON
Extension Home Economist

Pumpkin is a versatile vegetable. The bright orange color indicates that pumpkin is high in food value. They contain large amounts of Vitamin C, minerals and other nutrients. Desserts and soups are possible ways to prepare pumpkin. To cook pumpkin: Wash the pumpkin and cut it in half crosswise. Remove the seeds and the strings. Place the pumpkin in a pan, shell side up, and bake it until it is tender and begins to fall apart. Scrape the pulp from the shell and put it through a ricer or strainer.

MRS. TUNISON

QUICK GOLDEN SOUP

2 medium potatoes
1 medium onion
1 cup water
3 cups milk
1 cup cooked pumpkin
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
Cut potatoes and onions in small pieces. Cook in water in covered pan until tender. Mash with a fork in the cooking water in the pan. Add other ingredients and heat.

PUMPKIN CUSTARD

1/4 cup brown sugar
1/4 cup mild flavored molasses
Few grains of salt
3 cups milk, scalded
1/2 cup pumpkin
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
Few grains nutmeg
Few grains ginger
3 small eggs, slightly beaten

Stir the sugar, molasses and salt into the milk, making certain that the sugar is dissolved. Heat to scalding temperature. Blend the pumpkin and the spices with the beaten eggs. Add the hot milk to this mixture. Bake in custard cups set in pans of hot water at 375-400 degrees (moderately to moderately hot oven) until the custard is set and a silver knife when inserted comes out clean. Serves eight.

FROZEN PUMPKIN TARTS

1 tablespoon cornstarch
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon ginger
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
1 cup milk
3/4 cup cooked or canned pumpkin
2 egg whites, stiffly beaten
1/2 cup heavy cream whipped
1/2 cup chopped pecans

Mix cornstarch, cinnamon, and ginger. Add milk and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add pumpkin and cook until bubbling. Add small amount of hot mixture to beaten egg yolks. Mix well and gradually add to hot mixture. Cook 4 or 5 minutes.

longer or until thickened. Freeze. Break into chunks, turn into bowl. Beat smooth with rotary beater (this extra beating adds air, makes a smoother ice cream.) Fold in egg whites, whipped cream and nuts. Pour into 8 small tart shells. Freeze firm. Makes eight servings.

HALF STARVED

Teen-age girls in the United States are half starved. Studies indicate that six out of 10 teenage girls do not get enough of the right kinds of foods every day. The girls bypass breakfast, lay off lunch, and default on dinner. They omit milk and live on snacks. Because of their poor food habits, they are not reaching their potential in appearance or in energy. Like anyone else, teen-age girls would feel and look better if they included the proper foods in their diet every day.

Teen-age girls needed a quart of milk each day. This may be skim milk or buttermilk if she is interested in cutting calories. Skim or buttermilk has only half as many calories as whole milk. Meat, poultry, fish and eggs are essential in the diet. One of these protein rich foods should be part of every meal.

Fruits and vegetables can be a teen-age girl's best friend. They are low in calories, yet rich in the vitamins needed for smooth skin, shiny hair, and sparkling eyes. Teen-age girls would be wise to eat at least four fruits and vegetables every day. Breads and cereals can help them have attractive skin, healthy nerves, and the energy they need for a busy school and social life.

FOOD COSTS VARY

Consider the age of family members when figuring food costs and planning the food budget.

Keep in mind that a growing boy eats more than his father, and that an elderly person eats less than a younger one. In general, food costs increase with age up to 20 years, according to United States Department of Agriculture figures.

Using average countrywide retail food prices, food economists point out that, on a moderate cost plan, feeding a three-year-old boy would cost $4.50 a week while feeding a 16-year-old would cost $11.50. At the same time food for a 75-year-old man would cost $8.50 a week. Estimates of food costs were based on home meals, not those eaten away from home.

Feeding children under 12 years of age costs the same for boys and girls. Boys after their 12th birthday and men need more food than girls and women of the same age and their food costs are greater. In fact, food costs for a 16-year-old boy are one-third more on the average than food costs for a girl of the same age. The teen-age boy has the highest food costs of all age and sex groups. Next highest is the 35 to 54-year-old man.

TOKYO (AP)—Ace right-hander Minoru Murayama fired a two-hit shutout at the Detroit Tigers today as a Japanese All-Star baseball team whipped the touring American League club 4-0.

Murayama did not allow the Tigers a hit through the first seven innings and permitted only one runner as far as second base. Murayama, a 25-year-old fast baller, won 25 games and lost 17 this year for the Osaka Tigers, pennant winners in Japan's Central League. He had an earned run average of 1.20 and was named the league's most valuable player.

6-PAGE WILL OF MRS. FDR IS PROBATED

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y. (AP)—A little gold ring, a piece of silver, what's left of a pink china set—these are among the warm mementoes left to many by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt in her will.

The former First Lady died last week at the age of 78 in her Manhattan apartment, and was buried Saturday on the family estate at Hyde Park.

Her will was filed for probate Thursday, with no immediate estimate of the full value of her estate.

MANY BEQUESTS

Shining through the legal language of the six-page will were the small, personal bequests befitting warm associations with her children, her friends, and those who were, or had been, in her employ. Even nine godchildren were not forgotten.

Here are a few items:

"To my son James Roosevelt all my flat silver marked 'ER,' and the old silver Lady Bell.

"To my son Elliott Roosevelt what remains of Grandmother Roosevelt's pink china and two silver serving trays.

$10,000 TO DOCTOR

"To my son Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. the Japanese screen on the wall of my living room in my New York apartment, and the silver tankard."

To her physician, Dr. A. David Gurewitsch, $10,000 "in gratitude for his devoted care for which he would not accept compensation during my lifetime."

It was the largest single cash bequest.

Dr. Gurewitsch also was left an etching of President Roosevelt by Oskar Stossel.

To her son John, Mrs. Roosevelt left the furnishings and other property in her Hyde Park cottage, except for specified items designated for others.

REMEMBERS STAFF

She directed that personal property in her New York apartment be distributed equally among her other sons and her daughter, Mrs.

Anna Roosevelt Halsted — again with specific exceptions.

To everyone in her employ at the time of her death, Mrs. Roosevelt bequeathed $100 for each year of service with a maximum of $1,000 "unless such person shall have been a secretary to me, in which event the limitation is $2,000."

To Mayris Chaney Martin goes "my little gold ring with a ruby and a set of books in my library at Hyde Park."

CHILDREN SHARE

Mrs. Martin, who as a dancer was known under her maiden name, had been a close friend of Mrs. Roosevelt from the time her husband was governor of New York.

After distribution of all specified bequests Mrs. Roosevelt instructed her trustees — her sons and her attorney, Henry S. Hooker — to invest the remainder of her estate and to pay the income quarterly to her daughter, Mrs. Halsted. After Mrs. Halsted's death the principal will be divided among the surviving brothers.

Sam Donnelly and Louie Eckhardt, regulars on Michigan State's soccer team, are products of Port Chester, N. Y., High School.

NOW IT'S DOCTOR
DANNY THOMAS

Danny Thomas, star of the Danny Thomas show, has been awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Performing Arts by the University of Toledo in Toledo, Ohio.

The degree was presented by Dr. William Carlson, dean of the university.

Although not born in Toledo, Thomas was taken there as a small child by his family from his birthplace in Deerfield, Michigan, and has always regarded Toledo as his true home.

Thomas attended Woodward High School in his late teens to begin his career as an entertainer.

After almost a decade of being haunted by the ghost ridden "Topper" of TV, Leo G. Carroll believes his days of being asked to make dogs disappear are at an end.

Carroll, who stars as Father Fitzgibbon in "Going My Way," suspects now that the fans will be asking him for advice instead of expecting disappearing acts.

"This is a fine family show," says Carroll. "It dramatizes human conflict, offering stories of interesting philosophical and moral problems with humorous overtones."

He believes that Father Fitzgibbon, pastor and Father O'Malley's superior at Manhattan's St. Dominic Church, will help garner him a new crop of fans.

FIND BODY OF SLAIN GIRL, 17, IN CITY DUMP

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — A blonde, teen-age girl, whose battered body was found Friday buried beneath tons of logs in the city dump at nearby Pittston, died of a punctured lung, a autopsy shows.

Police said the injury was among many probably suffered when she was struck by a hit-run car.

The girl was Netten Kundratik, 17, Inkermann, Jenkins Township, missing since she left the house of a neighbor to walk home a week ago.

Her body was found by Frank Botera, 67, and his son, Teddy, when they looked into a pile of brush and logs to investigate black and white checkered material which they saw underneath. The material was the girl's slacks.

Dr. Carlos Rodriguez, pathologist at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, said the girl died of a punctured lung, pierced by several broken ribs.

He said the girl apparently was hit by an automobile.

He said there was no evidence of sexual molestation, and it appears from the stomach contents she was killed the night she disappeared—Friday, Nov. 9.

HIT BY AUTO

Police said Netten visited Mrs. Stella Ambrose that evening, and left to walk home. Her family reported her missing that night.

About 20 logs were piled atop the body, in the Pittston pit, miles from Inkermann.

Police said a wrecker was called to pull away the logs, some of which weighed 400 or 500 pounds. Nearly a ton of debris was piled over her, they said.

Ever serve banana whipped cream on a pudding? Just mash ripe banana and add to sweetened whipped cream, but do this just before serving. A little lemon juice may be added to the banana if you like because this sometimes points up flavor.
